

Language Campus

The Language Campus school offers children and teenagers a combination of language learning and exciting vacations. Experienced teachers and creative, engaged caregivers ensure the time is filled with engaging and valuable lessons, outdoor activities, and pure fun. This camp on Tenerife guarantees an amazing vacation experience.

A camp for children and teenagers aged 12-18. Students participate in language classes (English or Spanish) in international groups. In the afternoons, there are activities, games, and excursions. The Language Campus language school supervises the children during the course; an adult from Poland accompanies participants during the flight.
