

ES Camps

ES Camps offers language programs in some of the world's most fascinating locations, such as London, New York, Miami, Mauritius, and Cape Town. A modern language school in Dubai specializes in teaching English to international students. The program provides an unforgettable adventure of learning English combined with unique attractions in Dubai and Abu Dhabi. The language program includes 15 English lessons.

A camp for children and teenagers aged 12-18. The program is conducted within a Polish group, and depending on availability, students may be assigned to international language groups. The ES Camps language school oversees the participants during the course. An adult from Poland accompanies the participants during the flight and their stay.
